

DR. COHEN HAS FINE RECORD

Remarkable Quarterly Conference of Epworth Methodist Episcopal Church Discloses Splendid Condition

The fourth quarterly conference of the Epworth Methodist Episcopal church, South, which held Monday night by Dr. Charles F. Mitchell, presiding elder of the Chickasha District, was the most largely attended or any business session of the church for the year. Reports were read covering the work of the Senior Epworth League, the Junior League, the Wesley Adult Bible class, the Woman's Missionary society, the Good Samaritans, the Sunday school, the board of stewards and the board trustees. All reports evinced the most marked progress along all lines for the church since the coming of Dr. Lawrence L. Cohen, Jr., to the pastorate. Since he became pastor more than 100 new members have been added and all the finances of the church covering the regular budget for the first time in many years were reported out in full. Every department of the church has advanced in efficiency and the Sunday school is the largest in years. Following the various reports the presiding elder, Dr. C. F. Mitchell, remarked that they were "par excellent." The officers elected for the new year are as follows:

Board of Stewards—A. Schuler, J. T. Aust, D. E. Emerson, C. Schlotterbeck, W. A. Langston, W. T. Phillips, Dr. W. R. Bowman, J. C. Jones, Oakley Anderson, J. Hobbs Grimsley, J. H. Snyder, R. K. Wooten, A. E. McKenzie, Clyde McCauley, Edward Gilkey, E. O. Killey, Dr. S. H. Bond, Sam Pack and Prof. M. H. Shepard.

C. Schlotterbeck was unanimously chosen to serve as Sunday school superintendent for another year, with

A. E. McKenzie as associate superintendent. Upon his motion the following were elected as the Sunday school advisory committee: A. Schuler, D. E. Emerson and E. O. Killey.

In the general forward movement of the church A. E. McKenzie was elected lay leader, C. Schlotterbeck, district steward, and D. E. Emerson, recording steward. After the report of the president, J. T. Aust, the following men were continued as the board of trustees of the church: J. T. Aust, E. S. Burney, J. F. Bishop, W. T. Phillips, Neal Foster, R. K. Wooten, W. A. Langston, Dr. U. C. Boon and W. C. Matthews.

The report of the Senior Epworth League was read by Clyde McCauley and Miss Marian Parker, one of the new teachers in the junior high school, was confirmed as president, with Mrs. Sam M. Laws as superintendent of the Junior League. The other officers of the Senior League are as follows:

First vice president, Norman Duncan; first superintendent, Miss Minnie Singleton; second superintendent, Miss Esther Schafer; third superintendent, Miss Ruth Martin; fourth superintendent, Miss Hallie Grimsley; secretary, Joe Brunner; treasurer, Miss Helen Kimbro; corresponding secretary, Miss Lillie Witt; Epworth

500,000 YARDS OF DRESS GOODS

EVERY ARTICLE necessary to the proper finish of a dress is to be found under our roof.

Often a woman and her dressmaker can design and make garments better suited to her requirements than can be found even in our splendid ready-to-wear department.

In such case she can certainly choose from our 500,000 yards of dress goods a pattern that will please her. FOR HER GAYER HOURS we can supply charmusee—all the new shades—metallized cloth, silk net, Georgette crepe, chiffon cloth, taffetas, in the latest plaids and stripes. Habitual silks for blouses and shirts.

For more soother occasions there are gabardines, prunellas, reps, poplins—all of exceptional weave and durability.

And there are pretty kinghams, calicoes, percales. Who does not like to try their hands on a pretty morning apron once in a while?

A great American poet referred to the "silken, sad, uncertain rustle of each purple curtain"—and there never was more of description and sentiment expressed in a single line, but—we would recommend it every day life, different colors and the silken, certain homelike rustle of curtains made of some of that flannel, for instance, in rose and blue—a pretty design just sent us from New York, or the homelike double draperies of Henry VIII period—combine our Marquisette or lace net with whatever you prefer.

We know you feel reluctant to leave the department just described, but do let us persuade you to visit the section where the blankets are. We have all qualities and prices and sizes and colors. We have blankets that simply imply comfort at your first glimpse—great fluffy wool blankets, large and medium cotton blankets. Bathrobe blankets too in numerous designs. Cold weather is upon us. Time to lay in a supply.

Era agent, Miss Viola Wier, and organist, Miss Helen Kimbro.

This closed one of the most remarkable quarterly conferences of the Epworth M. E. church, South. Next Sunday will be the last service of the conference year as Dr. Cohen will leave the following Tuesday for the West.

The following Tuesday for the West Oklahoma conference which meets at Wynnewood November 1st. The public is cordially invited to the services Sunday. On Sunday evening, Dr. Cohen will preach a special sermon for the young ladies of Chickasha, but it will be in honor of the young ladies attending the Oklahoma College for Women. His theme will be, "The Young Woman and Her Ideals."

Win Interest Readers of the Express.

Those having the misfortune to suffer from backache, urinary disorders, gravel, dropsical swellings, rheumatic pains or other kidney and bladder disorders, will read with gratification this encouraging statement by a Chickasha man.

A. M. Dinn, 211 Michigan Ave., Chickasha, says: "I had been troubled for a long time by kidney complaint. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and were scanty and scalding. I attributed the trouble to the drinking water here. Doan's Kidney Pills made a cure."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Dinning had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

8,000 DRUGGISTS ARE NOW TAKING BIG STRAW VOTE

The results of the November election, and the name of the next president of the United States may be published before the polls open. This announcement is made by the National Association of Retail Druggists whose members, numbering 8,000, are now taking a straw vote of over 2,500,000 people from all walks of life and covering every state and territory in the union. By special arrangement with H. J. Brownson, a member of the Retail Association in Chickasha, the results of the straw vote will be published in this newspaper.

The fact that the members of the Druggists' Association, operate stores in towns and cities, ranging in population from 100 to 6,000,000 and scattered all over the country, and that they serve a public comprising all classes, agricultural, industrial, commercial and professional, gives to this poll a representative character.

The straw vote is the largest ever taken and the first of its kind to be conducted by a national commercial organization, but the drug men have perfected a system for receiving and recording the ballots, that is equalled in scope only by that of the national government. From their headquarters in Boston—the United Drug company—the 8,000 members of the Retail Druggists' Association are supplied with the returns. These results are mailed or telegraphed to Boston at the close of business each day.

IN POLICE COURT

A rich harvest was reaped in police court yesterday when $70 in fines and forfeited bonds was garnered. W. P. McCauley, drunk, paid a $5 fine. H. K. Hox and Josie Hightower forfeited $10 bonds each on the charge of immoral conduct. Clarence Jones, P. Halcum, H. Page and F. Jenson forfeited $10 bonds on the charge of loitering. Sammy Dwyer was again active, making two arrests. Roy Smith, for cutting the corner at Third and Kansas, will have his trial at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Linn Rose for speeding on South Fourth street paid a $5 fine.
